Riot-Worthy Dish

Wine Enthusiast editors asked America's 100 Best Wine Restaurants of 2013 "which dish would start a riot if it was taken off the menu?" Their riot-worthy dish is...

"Chef Steven Satterfield's farm egg baked in celery cream—a sort of oeufs en cocotte with a Southern accent—has become the kitchen's trademark creation."

Perfect Pairing

Grilled pork loin, griddled grits, peach chutney and watercress, paired with Domaine Lafond's 2011 Roc-Epine Lirac Blanc from France's Rhône Valley.

Wine Events

In March, Miller Union hosted a wine dinner featuring a spring multicourse menu with wine pairings from Peay Vineyards on the Sonoma Coast. The restaurant also works with the High Museum Wine Auction, pairing with various vineyards to offer wine dinners.
