

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

SPRING DINING GUIDE

Atlanta's 25 new classics

Gotta-have dishes worth the excursion from any part of town

by John Kessler, jkessler@ajc.com

Ever had a dish in a restaurant that was so good that it kind of became the restaurant for you?

The mouthful that stayed in your mind the next day and the next week and lodged there until you had an opportunity to go back and eat it again?

I've had that reaction with all the dishes here. I hope you agree with me.

Interactive: Point your cursor to the photo above and then click on the icons to learn more about the individual dishes pictured.

Click here to check out our gallery of all 25 dishes chosen as Atlanta's new classics.

BECKY STEIN

Ice cream sandwiches at Miller Union

21 of 25

Is there a better reason anywhere to eat dessert after lunch? Seasonal ice cream comes in tender chocolate wafers that duplicate but also improve on the version we all know. (99 Brady Ave., Atlanta. 678-733-8550, millerunion.com)

[editorial]

[The Reynolds Group Inc.] [www.thereynoldsgroupinc.com]